My Crazy, Lovely Home

Welcome!

Cuando hablamos de un hogar, no siempre nos referimos a la forma o el tamaño del lugar donde vivimos, sino también a ese lugar en el que podemos encontrar cobijo y amor. En esta oportunidad, aprenderemos expresiones para describir distintos hogares. ¿Comenzamos?

ACTIVITY 1

The rooms in a house

A. Look at the picture at the top of the page. Try to guess the names of the rooms you can find in a house.

B. Watch the video, check your predictions and repeat.

C. Watch the video again, complete the words with the missing letters. Then match the pictures to the words.

B _ _ ro _ _
 Li _ _ _ g _ _ om
 P _ _ _ o
 _ itc _ _ n
 Ba _ c _ n _
 Bat _ ro _ _
 Gar _ _ n
 Ba _ _ y _ rd
 G _ ra _ e
 D _ nin _ _ ro _ _
 La _ _ dr _ _ o _ _

D. Let's play! Use the dice and take turns to say in which part of the house you do those activities.

Here you have an example:

- Where do you do your homework?
- Bedroom. / In the living room. / I do the homework in the kitchen.

ACTIVITY 2

Different places we call “home”

A. Read the text and complete the activities below.

Our homes are all different

I'm Paula and I live in a house in San Vicente neighborhood. My house is small and cosy. I like it very much! I have a big family. We are six so I sleep in my bedroom with my two older sisters. My parent's bedroom is next to our room. They share the room with my baby brother. There is a small garden in front of the house. There are beautiful plants and flowers and we can play there.

My cousin Pablo's home is different. It's a flat in the centre of the city. There are two small bedrooms. The kitchen and the living room are together. There isn't a garden but there is a small balcony with plants.

My friend Carla's house is old and big. She lives with her grandma, her brothers and her sisters in Los Gigantes neighborhood. There are two bathrooms, a kitchen and three small bedrooms. Her home is so big! My favorite part of her house is the living room. It is colorful and has large windows. There we watch TV, play and do our homework.

What about your home?

B. Write the number of the description next to the image they describe. Then, write the names of the parts of the house.

C. Read the text again and match the expressions to form sentences.

- There is a garden

- There is a balcony

- There are six people

- There aren't any big bedrooms

- There are large windows

- There isn't a balcony

- in Carla's home.

- in Paula's house.

- in Pablo's flat.

UNDER THE LENS

Hay una expresión que se utiliza específicamente para mencionar lo que se encuentra en un determinado lugar. Revisen el texto anterior y traten de encontrar aquellas que se usan para indicar cuando “hay” o “no hay” algo.

Luego, lean atentamente las oraciones y completen los siguiente enunciados:

- Usamos _____ cuando nos referimos a una cosa.
- Usamos _____ cuando nos referimos a más de una cosa.
- Usamos _____ para las frases negativas en singular.
- Usamos _____ para las frases negativas en plural.

¿Se animan a utilizarlas para describir sus hogares o el de sus amigos?

ACTIVITY 3

Let's get creative!

A. Watch and listen to the story We eat dinner in the bathtub by Angela Shelf Medearis.

1. What is unusual in the story?
2. Why is Harris surprised?
3. What is surprising for you?

B. Get in groups to imagine and describe a crazy home. Write down your ideas below:

This is our crazy home. There is a _____.

There are _____ and _____.

There isn't a _____ but there is / are _____.

In the _____ you can _____ and in the _____
you can _____ and _____.

We love our crazy home!

C. With your group, make a scaled model of your crazy home.

D. Show your scaled model to the rest of the class. Don't forget to describe it and mention the activities you can do there!

See you soon!
